SECOND FLOOR

The New Coats $89.50

For Women

Throw scarves with their graceful swing, loose back narrowly belted, wide cuffed sleeves—these are some of the points of the new fall coats which we have just received in our department. Marvella cloth, a silky, faintly ribbed material, which has proved its splendid durability, fashions these coats in black, navy, Malay brown and Sorrento. They are all silk lined and the throw scarves have deep silk fringes to lend an additional touch of grace.

THIRD FLOOR

The New Gowns $47.50

For Women

Fall gowns are showing a decided tendency to gather themselves in the front. Fullness, drapes and girdles focus either at the front or one side.

The gown sketched at the right is no exception to the rule. It is simply designed, of Canton crepe, depending upon its subtle drapes and its bands of braided self material for its character. It is one of the new models being shown in our Women's Gown Department, most of them emphasizing black, brown and navy—since those are the accepted smart colors for early fall.

THIRD FLOOR

New Tweed Suits $35

For Women

One reason for welcoming fall again is that it means the return of the tweed suit, in a new version of course, but with the same delightful rough soft quality of the material and the same swagger tailoring of every model.

There are two styles marked at the above very reasonable price and both found in lovely soft shades of blue, tan, purple and brown. It's really not a bit too soon to be considering your tweeds for fall. These suits are all silk lined.

THIRD FLOOR

New Imported Silks have just arrived

Color or quality of the fabric—which explains the fascination of these beautiful new silks? Undoubtedly it is both together for either one alone would only half tell the story. As you walk through the silk department you see a very riot of vivid colors; gold, fuchsia, toreador, which is a particularly vivid red; canary yellow, several glorious new blues, among them Jeanne D'Arc.

Bulgarian and Paisley—Crepe de Chine prints itself in gay Bulgarian colors, following Paris; and Roshanara crepe adopts the Paisley print in rich colorings.

Metal Cloths—Metal brocade, for example, the gold or silver cloth with rich velvet design—for a sumptuous gown or wrap. Tinsel brocade, finer, but very lovely.

Velvets—These seem more beautiful this season than ever before, in color and texture as well. They have the straight pile which keeps them from matting and becoming marked—a decided advantage.

GROUND FLOOR

Imported Woolen Fabrics for Autumn are here

England, Ireland and Scotland have sent us especially lovely materials this year—tweeds in large plaids and effective stripes, with much brown and blue to be seen.

Woolen materials from France are exquisitely soft and finely woven—mixed fabrics for suits, others with a silky nap for frocks and wraps.

A visit to this department will give you a vivid picture of autumn fashions in wool fabrics.

Special! Novelty Tweed Stripes and Plaids for Sports Skirts $1.65 yd. 40 inches wide

SECOND FLOOR

GROUND FLOOR

Bridge Lamp $17.50

Unusually Beautiful

Although it is the combination of all the favorable points of this bridge lamp which go to make a graceful whole, there are still two features which we feel are worth stressing. They are the highly original design of the standard and the metal trimmed 12-inch amber mica shade, which gives a frosted effect. The lamp is finished in antique gold and has an adjustable arm and swivel socket. Complete, $17.50

Special, Wrought Iron Bridge Lamp, with Parchment Shade, $6.50
